Mr. T. S. Baisden, a well-known and public-spirited citizen of Live Oak, is in the city for a stay of several days, and has established headquarter at the popular Aragon. Mr. Baisden, who is well and favorably known in this city, is making his headquarters at the Aragon.—Times-Union, 8th.

New Year cards also at Wolfe's.

Mrs. O'Neill, one of the popular salesladies at the Live Oak Department store, visited relatives and friends in Jacksonville a few days since.

All kinds of cereals at the Pure Food Grocery.

The Pure Food Grocery can furnish you with your Xmas turkeys, dressed or alive. Call or telephone for prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mickler and baby of Live Oak arrived in the city the first of the week for a short visit with friends. Mr. Mickler formerly resided in Jacksonville and he and his wife have many friends here who are always glad to welcome them on their visits.—Times-Union, 8th.

Fine line of chocolate candies at R. L. White's.

Fresh line California canned goods at S. P. Mays'.

The citizens of West Second street, and in that section of the city, are complaining about poor city lights on some of the principal streets on the north side of the railroad. Quite a number have been heard to mention this matter, and it is very likely a number of citizens will call upon the city council at their next meeting and ask for an additional light for that part of the city.

Come and inspect our line of coffees, several different high brands to select from. Pure Food Grocery.

Give the New Store a trial and be convinced of quality and prices of goods. Pure Food Grocery.

Mrs. J. M. Price was hostess to the Earnest Workers, Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Pine street. Because of the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as usual, but the members made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers, and the work accomplished was gratifying to those who had the honor in charge. Mrs. Price, assisted by her sister, Miss Vesta Clark, of Cordele, Ga., served delicious refreshments during the afternoon.

The Famous White Rose coffee and tea at S. P. Mays'.

Pure Food Store will be headquarters for fruits and nuts Xmas time. Pure Food Grocery.

Buy your fireworks at Cook's.

Just received one thousand dollars worth of fireworks at Cook's.

Griff Register, one of Jasper's prominent business men, was attending to business in Live Oak Monday.

The county commissioners and board of public instruction were in session Tuesday.

Miss Emma Dee Randle, impersonator and reader, entertained our people at the city hall Tuesday night. Miss Randle is an artist in her profession, and moved her audience to tears or laughter at will. "The best entertainment of the kind Live Oak has ever had," is the way one gentleman expressed himself. The ladies under whose auspices this lyceum course is being given should congratulate themselves upon the success of this, their second attraction.

Look for small space in this paper for prices of the Pure Food Grocery.

The Maryland Amusement Company have been showing in the city on Pine street every day and night this week, and they have kept their promise to give our people a good show, full of varied and entertaining features. The attendance has been good despite the bad weather part of the time, and tomorrow will doubtless be a record-breaker in that respect. The show is morally clean and fit for the patronage of the most scrupulous amusement patrons.

Col. Jno. Harrell made a business visit to Lake City Tuesday.

Karl Bardin spent Sunday and Monday with his Brother in Lake City.

T. S. Sistrunk, of Welborn, was a business visitor to Live Oak Tuesday.

Miss Christine Mays, of Monticello, is in our city visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mays.

Mrs. Garminy Mays, of Jasper, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mays the first of the week.

Mrs. Jno. Harrell and two children, spent Monday and Tuesday in Fort White visiting relatives.

Rev. R. V. Atkisson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will fill the pulpit Sunday for the last time before conference. He will leave on Tuesday for Lakeland where the annual conference will be held this year. Bro. Atkisson has served our people faithfully and well for the past two years, and we trust that he may stay with us the coming year. Should he be sent elsewhere, the loss to the church and city would be great, as Dr. Atkisson and his estimable family have made for themselves a place in the hearts of all our people, and we know we voice the sentiment of the majority of his people, when we wish for his return. Dr. Atkisson is a very able minister and pastor, and his work here has been of a very high order.
